

I have enjoyed paying for the services that satellite radio offers me. Instead of trying to prevent satellite radio from offering local coverage, the local stations should offer a better service to it's listeners.